CHAPTER 277—H. F. No. 498

[Coded]

An act relating to agriculture; market development, promotion, advertising, market research and production of soybeans; creating a Minnesota soybean advisory board and defining its powers and duties; establishing fees necessary to finance the activities of the board; providing an appropriation; and providing a penalty.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. [21A.01] Soybeans; development; purpose. It is hereby declared that the market development, promotion and advertising, market research and production of soybeans grown in Minnesota is important to the general welfare of the people of Minnesota; that it is in the public interest that better methods of marketing, producing, processing, advertising, and promoting soybeans grown in the state of Minnesota be fostered, encouraged, developed, and improved, so that the soybean industry within the state, the people employed by said industry, directly or indirectly, and the people of the state of Minnesota, should be benefited thereby; and that accomplishment of these purposes requires establishment of a Minnesota soybean advisory board for the purpose of contributing to the protection, expansion, stabilization and improvement of the agricultural economy of this state. This act shall not be construed to abrogate or limit, in any way, the rights, powers, duties and functions of the commissioner of agriculture or any other agency of the state, but shall be supplementary thereto, and in aid and cooperation therewith.

Sec. 2. [21A.02] Definitions. Subdivision 1. As used in this act, the terms described in this section shall have the meanings ascribed to them.

Subd. 2. "Soybeans" means soybeans grown within the state of Minnesota for use as food, feed, seed, or any industrial or commercial use.
