

tive officer of the board and subject to its approval, the director shall operate the Minnesota zoological garden and enforce all regulations and policy decisions of the board in regard thereto. He shall perform such other duties as may be directed by the board.

Subd. 4. As directed by the board, the director may establish a schedule of charges for admission to or the use of the Minnesota zoological garden or any related facility, provide for the sale of gifts, souvenirs, food and beverages, and grant concessions for the sale of such items. The granting of any concessions shall be subject to the terms and provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 16, unless the commissioner of administration determines that it is not feasible and not in the public interest to award a contract for the operation of such concession to the highest responsible bidder.

Sec. 4. [85A.04] Zoological garden account. A Minnesota zoological garden account in the state treasury is created. All receipts from the operation of the Minnesota zoological garden, taxes, gifts, or contributions shall be deposited to the credit of such account and are hereby appropriated annually to the state zoological board to carry out the terms and provisions of this act. Such moneys may be expended for operation, capital improvements and equipment and for acquisition of wild and domestic animals for the Minnesota zoological garden or for grants to other public zoological gardens for similar purposes as authorized by section 2, subdivision 8.

Sec. 5. This act is in effect on July 1, 1969.

Approved May 28, 1969.
