

CHAPTER 289—H. F. No. 732.

An Act authorizing public library boards in cities having a population of 50,000 inhabitants or over to enter into arrangement with certain county and village authorities for the use of the libraries and museums of such boards, by the inhabitants of such counties and villages, and fixing the maximum tax that may be levied by or for the benefit of any such library board.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Power of library board to extend privileges.—Section 1. Any public library board in any city of this state having a population of fifty thousand inhabitants or over, whether such board was created by and under the General Laws or by special act of the legislature, may enter into arrangement with the authorities of the county within which it is located, or with the authorities of any adjoining county, or with the authorities of any village within any such county, whereby the inhabitants of any such county, counties or villages, may secure the privileges of using the library and museums of any such library board, and the authorities of any such county, counties or villages are hereby authorized to defray the expenses any such arrangement may involve.

One mill tax authorized.—Sec. 2. There may be annually levied by, or for the benefit of any public library board in any city of this state, having a population of fifty thousand inhabitants or over, whether such board was created by and under the General Laws or by special act of the legislature, a tax of not to exceed one mill upon each dollar of the property in such city, as the value of such property has been assessed and determined for the purposes of general taxation.

Sec. 3. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Approved April 22, 1907.
