CHAPTER 103—S. F. No. 366.

An act to amend section 1 of chapter III of General Laws of 1907, entitled "An Act to define 'bank' and 'savings bank,' and to limit the right to use the same as a business name."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Bank declared to be a corporation.—Section 1. That Section 1 of Chapter 111 of General Laws of 1907 be and the same hereby is amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 1. A 'bank' is a corporation having a place of business in this state, where credits are opened by the deposit of money or currency, or the collection of the same, subject to be paid or remitted on draft, check or order; and where money is loaned or advanced on stocks, bonds, bullion, bills of exchange or promissory notes, and where the same are received for discount or sale. A 'savings bank' is a corporation managed by disinterested trustees, solely authorized to receive and safely invest the savings of small depositors.

"Every 'bank' or 'savings bank' in this state shall at all times be under the supervision and subject to the control of the public examiner, as provided by section 2968 of the Revised Laws relating to financial corporations, and when so conducted said business shall be known as 'banking.'"

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 25, 1909.
