

ed therein shall be immediately deliverable to the owner, or his order, and shall not be subject to any further charge for storage after demand for delivery shall have been made and facilities for receiving and shipping the same have been provided. If not delivered within twenty-four hours after such demand, the warehouseman shall be liable to the owner in damages not exceeding one cent a bushel for each day's delay unless he shall deliver to different owners in the order demanded as rapidly as it can be done by ordinary diligence. In case that terminal delivery of grain is demanded, the warehouseman shall forthwith issue and deliver to the owner or his order a surrender receipt, such receipt to state the date, name of owner, the grade, gross weight, dockage and net weight of the grain represented by such receipt, making such grain deliverable in its net amount at any terminal market in the state designated by the owner of said receipts on the same line of railroad, such grain to be subject to the usual freight, inspection, weighing and switching charges when it arrives at the terminal so designated, the freight to be computed on the basis of the gross weight of the grain represented by such surrender receipt. The owner of the receipts may at his option order a car in which the grain covered by his surrender receipt is to be transported, and in such case the grain shall be delivered immediately when the car so ordered is placed at the warehouse."

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 12, 1909.

CHAPTER 70—S. F. No. 418.

An Act relating to fees and expenses of sheriffs and other officers for taking convicts to the state prison and the state reformatory.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Expenses of sheriffs, how paid.—Section 1. The necessary expenses of sheriffs, and other officers incurred in conveying convicts to the state prison and state reformatory, including per diem and expenses of guards, shall be approved by the state auditor, and be paid out of the state treasury. Said auditor may allow for said expenses the following rates: The necessary expenses incurred by the sheriff or deputy in going to and returning from the state prison or reformatory; two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per day for each guard, and such sum as may be necessary for railroad fare and actual traveling expenses. No more than one guard shall be allowed for one prisoner, and one additional guard for every two additional prisoners; provided, that in all counties of the state wherein the compensation of the sheriff is upon a fee basis, such sheriff shall also receive a per diem of three dollars ($3.00) per day for each day necessarily consumed in conveying prisoners to the prison or reformatory. All bills shall be rendered in writing, fully itemized and verified by oath, and accompanied by the receipt of the warden of the prison or the superintendent of the reformatory, for the delivery of such convict or convicts, in form to be prescribed by the state auditor.

$15,000 appropriated.—Sec. 2. There is hereby appropriated out of any funds of the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) to pay the necessary expenses incurred under section one of this act for the two fiscal years ending July 31st, 1908, and July 31st, 1909.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 12, 1909.

CHAPTER 71—H. F. No. 471.

An Act fixing and regulating the appointment and compensation of deputies and clerks in the offices of county treasurer and county auditor in counties having, or which may hereafter have, a population of over 100,000 and less than 200,000 inhabitants.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Salaries of deputies, clerks, etc., not to exceed $15,000 per annum in treasurer's office.—Section 1. The treasurer of each county of this state having or which may hereafter have a population of over 100,000 and less than 200,000 inhabitants, shall appoint and employ such deputies, clerks, and other employees as may be necessary for the proper performance of the duties of his office, and at such reasonable compensation as may be fixed and determined by such treasurer, and approved by the board of county commissioners, but the total amount to be paid to, or used for such deputies, clerks and other employees, shall not exceed in any one year the total sum of $15,000, and such salaries shall be payable in equal monthly installments out of the county treasury.

Salaries of deputies and clerks in auditor's office not to exceed $22,000 per annum.—Sec. 2. The auditor of each county of this state having, or which may hereafter have, a population of
