

Sec. 2. Full faith of city pledged.—The bonds authorized under this act may be issued and sold by any such city notwithstanding any limitation contained in the charter of such city or in the laws of this state, prescribing or fixing any limit on the bonded indebtedness of such city, but the full faith and credit of any such city shall at all times be pledged for payment of any bonds issued under this act and for the current interest thereon, and the common council or city council of such city shall each year include in the tax levy for such city a sufficient amount to provide for the payment of such interest and for the accumulation of a suitable sinking fund for the redemption of such bonds at their maturity.

Sec. 3. Thirty years at 4½ per cent—how signed.—No bonds issued hereunder shall be issued to run for a longer period than thirty years, or bearing a higher rate of interest than four and one-half per cent per annum, but the place of payment of the principal and interest thereon and the denominations in which the same shall be issued, shall be such as may be prescribed by the common council or city council, and may be in the form of coupon bonds or registered bonds, so-called. All such bonds shall be signed by the mayor, attested by the city clerk, and countersigned by the comptroller, and shall be sealed with the seal of such city, provided that the signatures to the coupons attached to such bonds, if any, may be lithographed thereon, and none of said bonds shall be sold at less than their par value and accrued interest, and then only to the highest responsible bidder therefor.

Sec. 4. Application.—This act shall only apply to cities existing under a charter framed pursuant to Section 36, Article 4 of the constitution.

Sec. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 18, 1913.
