

"5502. No person except the director of game and fish shall place or store, or receive or accept for storage in a cold storage warehouse, any protected wild animal, except fish or furs lawfully taken. This shall not prohibit the placing of carcasses of wild animals or game birds legally taken under hunting license in refrigerators or cooling rooms in butcher shops or other places not classified as commercial cold storage warehouses when done to prevent wanton waste; provided, however, all such wild animals or game birds so placed shall have attached thereto tags plainly marked, in ink, to indicate the name of owner and number of license under which such wild animals or game birds were taken and be held subject to inspection by the director of game and fish and his duly authorized agents.

CHAPTER 352—H. F. No. 482

An act to amend Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Sec. 6394-10 relating to the sale of state timber.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Sales of state timber.—That Mason's Minn. Statutes of 1927, Sec. 6394-10 be amended so as to read as follows :

"Section 6394-10.

Subject to the restrictions of the state constitution, the director of the division of forestry with the approval of the commissioner of conservation may sell the timber on the lands in his charge without formalities but for not less than the full appraised value as fixed by any two state appraisers, small amounts of green standing, dead, down, dying or insect infected or diseased timber not exceeding $250.00 in appraised value to any individual; provided, that not more than one such sale to any individual shall be in effect at any one time. The purchaser shall pay the full appraised price in advance before the permit is issued, and upon receipt of such payment the director of the division of forestry may informally, by letter or otherwise, authorize the purchaser to cut and remove such timber within one year from the date of sale under the supervision and restrictions as the director of the division of forestry or any state appraiser by him designated shall deem advisable.

Provided, however, that if the purchaser, for good and sufficient reason, is unable to cut and remove the timber within the one year period, an extension of time may be granted by the director of the division of forestry with the approval of the commissioner of conservation; provided further, that only one such extension shall be granted and such extension shall be for one year only. All timber products except fuel wood cut under the provision of this act shall be scaled by the surveyor general of logs and lumber or his designated representative, and final settlement for the timber cut shall be made on this scale. The purchaser shall dispose of slashings according to law, shall be liable under this act in trespass for cutting or unnecessarily injuring any timber not included within the sale made to him under this paragraph, and shall be otherwise subject to all the laws governing the sale and removal of state timber so far as practicable."

CHAPTER 353—H. F. No. 489

An act amending the 1938 Supplement to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 6291, relating to the redemption of state lands which have become forfeited by default in the purchase price thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Redemption of state lands which have been forfeited.—That the 1938 Supplement to Mason's Minnesota Statutes for 1927, Section.6291, be amended to read as follows:

"6291. When the rights of a purchaser have become forfeited by a failure to pay the amount due, if such purchaser, his heirs or assigns, before re-sale at public auction of the lands described in the certificate, but not later than December 30, 1941, shall pay to the state treasurer the amount of interest then due and payable on such certificate, with interest at four per cent, such payment shall operate as a redemption of the rights of the purchaser, his heirs or assigns. The provisions of this section shall not apply to state lands sold after January 1, 1934."

Approved April 21, 1939.
