

fied. Any policy may contain a coinsurance clause, if the insured requests the same, in writing, of which fact such writing shall be the only evidence, and if, in consideration thereof, a reduction in the rate of premium is made by the company. When so demanded and attached to the policy, this agreement shall be binding upon both the insured and the company, and, in case of loss, the actual cash value of the property so insured at the time of the loss, including the buildings, shall be the basis for determining the proper amount of the coinsurance, and the amount of loss, notwithstanding any previous valuation of the building. Every person who solicits insurance and procures an application therefor shall be held to be the agent of the party afterward issuing insurance thereon or a renewal thereof.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1953, Section 65.08, is amended to read:

65.08 Adjustment, right to reference. Any person who shall not, within twenty days after written request, appoint a qualified appraiser, as provided in the policy, shall at the election of the other party be deemed to have waived the right to appraisal, and, if it be the insurer, shall be liable to suit. No person shall be a qualified appraiser who is not a resident of the state, disinterested, and willing to act.

Sec. 5. Repealer. Minnesota Statutes 1953, Section 65.01, is hereby repealed.

Sec. 6. This act becomes effective January 1, 1956.

Approved April 18, 1955.
