

CHAPTER 571—H. F. No. 288

An act relating to state forest trust fund lands and the disbursement of receipts therefrom; amending Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 16.20, Subdivision 5.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 16.20, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

16.20 Subdivision 5. The term "state forest trust fund lands" as used in this subdivision, means any state school lands or other public lands subject to trust provisions under the state constitution and heretofore or hereafter set apart as state forest lands ~~or part thereof~~ as provided by law.

Beginning July 1, 1955, the state auditor and the state treasurer shall keep a separate account of all receipts from the sale of timber or other revenue from such state forest trust fund lands, to be known as the state forest suspense account, specifying the trust funds interested in such lands and the receipts therefrom, respectively.

As soon as practicable after the close of each fiscal quarter from and after July 1, 1955, the commissioner of administration, upon information supplied by the commissioner of conservation which the commissioner of conservation is herewith directed to furnish, shall determine and certify to the state auditor and the state treasurer the total costs incurred by the state during such quarter under appropriations theretofore made for the protection, improvement, administration, and management of such state forest trust fund lands for forestry purposes as authorized by law, specifying the trust funds interested in such lands, respectively.

As soon as practicable after the end of each fiscal year, beginning with the year ending June 30, 1956, the state auditor and the state treasurer shall distribute the receipts credited to said state forest suspense account during such fiscal year as follows:

(1) ~~25 per cent of the~~ The total costs incurred by the state for the purposes aforesaid during such fiscal year and certified as hereinbefore provided shall be transferred to a special account to be known as the state forest development account.

~~(2) 75 per cent of the costs so incurred and certified shall be transferred to the general revenue fund as reim-~~ bursement for appropriations theretofore made for the purposes aforesaid.

~~(3)~~ (2) The balance of said receipts shall be transferred to the state trust funds concerned in accordance with their respective interests in the lands from which the receipts were derived.

All moneys accruing and credited to said state forest development account from time to time are hereby appropriated to the division of forestry in the department of conservation, subject to the supervision and control of the commissioner of conservation, for the purpose of planting, stand improvement, and forest development of such state forest trust fund lands for forestry purposes, to remain available until expended.

All the foregoing appropriations herein contained are to be expended subject to the provisions of ~~Laws 1939, Chapter 431~~ law. No appropriation shall become available for expenditure until such estimates as required by ~~Section 16, Article II~~ of such act law shall have been approved by the commissioner of administration. No obligation involving expenditure of money shall be entered into unless there is a balance in the appropriation available not otherwise encumbered to pay obligations previously incurred.

Approved April 20, 1961.
