CHAPTER 411—S. F. No. 208

An act relating to the state agricultural society; amending certain provisions relating to money and property of the society; amending Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 37.07, as amended; 37.13; and 37.19.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 37.07, as amended by Laws 1963, Chapter 388, Section 3, is amended to read:

37.07 State agricultural society; monthly statements by secretary; purchases, expenditures. The secretary of the state agricultural society shall prepare monthly statements summarizing receipts and expenditures for the preceding month, which shall be signed by him and approved by the president or a vice president of the governing board. The secretary shall attach to this statement his affidavit that all articles were purchased by him, or under his direction, and to his best information and belief, all articles purchased by the governing board were purchased at a fair cash market value and received by the society, and that all services charged for were actually rendered; that neither he nor any person in his behalf, or the governing board, to his best information and belief, had any pecuniary or other interest in any purchase made or services rendered, or received any pecuniary or other benefit therefrom, directly or indirectly, by commission, percentage, deduction, or otherwise; and that the articles specified conformed in every respect to the goods ordered, in both quality and quantity. This report shall also show the amount of money in the hands of the treasure of the society.

Copies of the secretary's monthly report shall be furnished to the state auditor, and the office of the public examiner and to each member of the board of managers, no later than the tenth of the month following the months' activities encompassed within such report.

The board of managers shall, from time to time, designate one or more national or state banks, or trust companies authorized to do a banking business, as official depositories for money of the society, and thereupon shall require the treasurer to deposit all or part of such money in such bank or banks. Such designation shall be in writing and set forth all the terms and conditions upon which the deposits are made, and shall be signed by the president and secretary, and made a part of the minutes of the board. Any bank or trust company so designated shall qualify as a depository by furnishing a corporate surety bond or collateral as required by Minnesota Statutes, Section 118.01, and shall thereafter, as long as money of the society is on deposit therein, maintain such bond or collateral in the amounts required by said section. However, no bond or collateral shall be required to secure any deposit, insofar as it is insured under federal law, as provided in Minnesota Statutes, Section 118.10.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 37.13, is amended to read:

37.13 Title to property vested in state. The title to all money and other property of the society shall vest in the state in the name of the society and there shall be no division of its assets among its members. All moneys received by the society shall be used in the holding of its annual fair, and for such other exhibitions or expositions held from time to time as the society shall determine, for the improvement of the fair grounds, the payment of expenses, premiums, and purses, the acquisition of properties, both real and personal, for the use and benefit of the society, and for the furnishing of such attractions and amusements as the governing board shall deem necessary for the success of its fairs, and other exhibitions and expositions.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 37.19, is amended to read:

37.19 Contracts. The society may contract in its own name, and through its duly appointed officers and agents without the necessity of advertising for, or publicly requesting bids, and the provisions of this chapter, and all ordinances, by-laws, rules, and regulations adopted by its governing board shall be deemed a part of every such contract entered into with any exhibitor, privilege holder, lessee, licensee, or other person. The society shall have the power to purchase, sell, lease, or otherwise to engage in transactions as respects real property in its own name, and with terms and conditions acceptable to its board of managers. The provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 37.01 shall apply to the specific properties described therein, excepting space rental contracts and ground leases for a term of one year or less. The society shall submit to the executive council of the state of Minnesota, as provided by Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 9, all its transactions involving real properties for the approval of the executive council, and no such transaction shall be final until approved by the executive council. All such transactions involving real property heretofore made by the society are hereby ratified, confirmed and approved.

Approved May 12, 1965.

CHAPTER 412—H. F. No. 254

An act relating to warehousing and penalties for violations of the warehousing law; amending Minnesota Statutes 1961, Sections 231.14, 231.36, 231.37, 231.38 and 231.39.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 231.14, is amended to read:

231.14 Warehousing law; violations; discrimination in rates. Except as herein otherwise specified, no warehouseman, or any officer, agent, or employee thereof, shall, directly or indirectly, by remittance, rebate, or any device, inducement, or other means, suffer or permit any corporation or person to obtain any service, or the storage of any goods, wares, or merchandise, at less than the rates then established and in force as shown by the schedule filed and in effect at the time. No person or corporation shall, directly or indirectly, by any device, inducement, or means, either
