Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1965, Section 375.12, is amended to read:

375.12 County boards; publication of proceedings. The county board shall cause the official proceedings of its sessions to be published in some qualified newspaper ~~printed~~ produced and published in its county, which publication shall be let annually by contract to the lowest bidder, at the first regular session of the board in January each year. In each county whose population exceeds 450,000, the proceedings shall be published in a daily newspaper, and in counties having a population exceeding 250,000 but less than 450,000, the proceedings may be published in any legal newspaper, ~~printed~~ produced and published at the county seat, which newspaper shall be the official newspaper of the county, and in each such county the proceedings shall be published also in one other qualified newspaper ~~printed~~ produced and published in the county outside the county seat. The board may reject any offer if, in its judgment, the public interests so require, and may thereupon designate a newspaper without regard to any rejected offer. In any county whose population exceeds 50,000, and is less than 250,000, the proceedings may be published in one daily and one weekly newspaper at their respective county seats. If the official newspaper of the county shall cease to exist for any reason, except by consolidation with another newspaper, the county board shall have authority to designate another newspaper for the remainder of the year. For the purpose of this section, a newspaper is produced and published in the county if it has in the county its known office of issue, as such term is defined in Minnesota Statutes 1965, Section 331.02, and if it does its typographic composition or presswork or both in the county.

Approved May 17, 1967.
