

forfeiture, shall be apportioned to the municipal subdivision entitled thereto;

(3) Such portion of the remainder as may have been theretofore levied on the parcel of land for any bond issue of the school district, town, city, village, or county, wherein the parcel of land is situated shall be apportioned to the municipal subdivisions in the proportions of their respective interest; and

(4) Any balance shall be apportioned as follows:

(a) Any county board may annually by resolution set aside not exceeding 30 percent of the receipts remaining to be used for timber development on tax forfeited land and dedicated memorial forests, to be expended under the supervision of the county board. It shall be expended only on projects approved by the commissioner of conservation.

(b) Any county board may annually by resolution set aside not exceeding 20 percent of the receipts remaining to be used for the acquisition and maintenance of county parks or recreational areas as defined in Minnesota Statutes, Sections 398.31 to 398.36, to be expended under the supervision of the county board.

~~(b)~~ (c) If the board does not avail itself of the authority under paragraph (a); or (b) any balance remaining shall be apportioned as follows: state, 10 percent; county, 30 percent; town, village or city, 20 percent; and school district, 40 percent, and if the board avails itself of the authority under paragraph (a) the balance remaining after such 10 percent has been deducted shall be apportioned among the state, county, town, village or city, in the proportions in this paragraph above stated, provided, however, that in unorganized territory that portion which should have accrued to the township shall be administered by the county board of commissioners.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1965, Chapter 31, is amended by adding a section to read:

[31.60] Department of agriculture; meat industry division.
Subdivision 1. Division duties; director; personnel. A meat industry division is created in the department of agriculture which shall enforce and administer laws enforced and administered by the commissioner of agriculture relating to meat, fish, and dressed poultry, except laws enforced and administered by the division of poultry industries. The meat industry division is under the supervision of a director. The commissioner shall appoint the director from the register as certified by the Minnesota department of civil service, who shall be experienced and knowledgeable in the meat industry.

Subd. 2. Meat industry; advisory board. Except to the extent that the following functions are under the jurisdiction of the division of poultry industries or the Minnesota poultry improvement board, there is created a Minnesota meat improvement board for the purpose of advising the commissioner of agriculture and the director of the meat industry division in the development of the meat industry of the state. The board consists of not more than ten members appointed by the governor. The board shall include, but not be limited to, one representative from each of the following: (1) Retail meat dealers, (2) frozen food processing plants licensed by this state, (3) slaughter houses licensed by this state, (4) wholesale sausage manufacturers licensed by this state, (5) federally inspected meat packers, (6) livestock producers, (7) consumers, (8) public health officials, and (9) veterinarians. Members of the board shall serve for a term of three years and until their successors are qualified. Except for the terms of members first appointed to the board, no member shall serve more than two successive terms. Members shall be appointed to the first board as follows: Two members appointed for terms of one year each; two members appointed for terms of two years each; and the balance of the members appointed for terms of three years each. Members of the board serve without compensation but shall be allowed and paid their actual traveling and other expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties pursuant to rules governing reimbursement of expenses for state employees.

Subd. 3. Meetings of the advisory board; commissioner's duties. The commissioner or his duly appointed representative shall call the first meeting of the advisory board. At this first meeting the board shall elect from their members a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary who shall each serve for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The advisory board shall meet at the call of the chairman, but not less than once a year. The commissioner or his duly appointed representative shall attend meetings called by the chairman. A meeting may be called upon written request of a majority of all of the members of the board, to be held at a time convenient to both the board and the commissioner. The commissioner or his duly appointed representative shall attend meetings called by written request of the members. The commissioner shall make available to the board such information as it may request regarding the policies and programs of the department.

Sec. 2. This act is effective July 1, 1967.
