

this section, the period of limitation in any such case shall be extended for two years from the date when the incapacity ceases.

(4) (7) In the case of injury caused by x-rays, radium, radioactive substances or machines, or ionizing radiation, the time limitations otherwise prescribed by Minnesota Statutes 1961, Chapter 176, and acts amendatory thereof, shall not apply, but the employee shall give notice to the employer and commence his action within two years after the employee has knowledge of the cause of such injury and the injury has resulted in disability.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1965, Section 176.461, is amended to read:

176.461 Setting aside award. Except where a writ of certiorari has been issued by the supreme court and the matter is still pending in that court or where as a matter of law the determination of the supreme court cannot be subsequently modified, the commission, for cause, at any time after an award within eight years from the date compensation was last paid, upon application of either party and not less than five days after written notice to all interested parties, may set the award aside and grant a new hearing and thereon determine the matter on its merits and make such findings of fact, conclusions of law, and award or disallowance of compensation or other order as the pleadings and the evidence produced before it and the provisions of this chapter shall in its judgment require.

Sec. 16. Effective date. The provisions of this act shall become effective September 1, 1967.

ian, and minor for damages. [Subdivision 1.] The parent or guardian of the person of a minor who is under the age of 18 and who is living with the parent or guardian and who willfully or maliciously causes injury to any person or damage to any property is jointly and severally liable with such minor for such injury or damage to an amount not exceeding $100, if such minor would have been liable for such injury or damage if he had been an adult. Nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve such minor from personal liability for such injury or damage. The liability provided in this section is in addition to and not in lieu of any other liability which may exist at law. Recovery under this act shall be limited to special damages.

Sec. 2. [Subd. 2.] This act shall not apply to persons having custody or charge of any minor under the authority of the welfare or corrections department of the state.

Sec. 3. [Subd. 3.] This act shall expire July 1, 1969.
