

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1976, Section 192.33, is amended to read:

192.33 ACTION FOR DAMAGES. Any person who is debarred from such enjoyment contrary to the provisions of section 192.32 shall be entitled to recover in an action on the case from any corporation, association or person guilty of such violation; his actual damages and $100 in addition thereto; and evidence that such person debarred was at the time sober, orderly and willing to pay for such enjoyment in accordance with rates fixed therefor for civilians; shall be prima facie evidence that he was debarred on account of his wearing such uniform or of his being in such service. Any person violating any provision of section 192.32 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor injured as a result of a violation of section 192.32 may bring an action to recover his actual damages, costs, and, in addition thereto, exemplary damages .

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1976, Section 192.34, is amended to read:

192.34 DISCRIMINATION WITH RESPECT TO EMPLOYMENT. No person shall discriminate against any officer or enlisted man of the military forces of the state because of his membership therein. No person shall prohibit or refuse entrance to any officer or enlisted man of the army or navy of the United States, or of the military forces of this state, into any public entertainment or place of amusement because such officer or enlisted man is wearing the uniform of the organization to which he belongs. No employer or officer or agent of any corporation, company, or firm or other person shall discharge any person from employment because of being an officer or enlisted man of the military forces of the state, or hinder or prevent him from performing any military service he may be called upon to perform by proper authority, or dissuade any person from enlistment in the said National Guard by threat or injury to him, in case he shall so enlist, in respect to his employment, trade or business. It shall be unlawful for any employer to discharge any person from employment because of membership in the military or naval forces of the United States, of this state, or any other state, or to hinder or prevent any person from performing any military service that person may be called upon to perform by proper authority, or to dissuade any person from enlistment in the military service by threat or injury, in case that person shall so enlist, in respect to his employment, trade or business. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1976, Sections 190.28, 192.09, and 192.10, are repealed.

Approved March 9, 1978.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1976, Section 171.02, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. VOLUNTEER FIREMEN; TRUCKS AND EMERGENCY EQUIPMENT; MIDMOUNT AERIAL LADDER TRUCK. Drivers' licenses shall be classified according to the types of vehicles which may be driven by the holder of each type or class of license. The commissioner may, as appropriate, subdivide the classes listed in this subdivision and issue licenses classified accordingly. No class of license shall be valid to operate a motorcycle or school bus unless so endorsed. There shall be three general classes of licenses as follows:

(a) Class C; valid for all farm trucks as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 17, operated by the owner or an immediate member of his family or an employee not primarily employed for the purpose of operating the farm truck, fire trucks and emergency fire equipment, regardless of the number of axles, and whether or not in excess of 24,000 pounds GVW, driven or operated by volunteer firemen while on duty, and all single unit two axle vehicles not in excess of 24,000 pounds GVW including vehicles with a temporary auxiliary axle as defined in section 169.67, subdivision 4. Holder may also tow trailers under 10,000 pounds GVW including house trailers. Buses as defined under this chapter may not be driven by a holder of a Class C license. A person employed as a tillerman by a fire department may drive the rear portion of a midmount aerial ladder truck with a Class C license.

(b) Class B; valid for all vehicles in Class C and all other single unit vehicles including buses.

(c) Class A; valid for any vehicle or combination thereof.

Approved March 9, 1978.
