CHAPTER 374—S.F.No. 759

An act relating to Indian affairs; expanding the term of office for at large intertribal board members from two years to four years; providing for future at large elections; defining the term of office for at large members; amending Minnesota Statutes 1978, Section 3.922, Subdivision 2.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1978, Section 3.922, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. ADDITIONAL MEMBERS. Two members of the board shall be elected at large by Indian residents of Minnesota who (1) are legal members and eligible voters of a federally recognized tribe in accordance with the criteria of said tribe and (2) are not members of any federally recognized tribe with a reservation in Minnesota. The election of at large members shall be in a manner prescribed by the secretary of state with the first such election for at large members to take place at a reasonable time, but no later than April 14, 1977. The manner of election, certification, and contest shall, insofar as reasonably possible, be consistent with procedures employed in general elections in the state so as to insure a fair election and ready access to the election process by eligible voters. The voting procedure shall include voting by absentee ballot. A person shall be eligible to serve as an at large member of the board if at the time of the election he is a qualified voter within the requirements of the Minnesota Constitution, Article VII and a member of a federally recognized tribe that does not have a reservation in Minnesota. The at large election described herein shall be certified and regulated by the secretary of state. The term for at large members elected in 1977 shall be two years and until a successor is elected and qualified expire on April 20, 1981. At large elections shall be held no later than April 14, 1981, and no later than every fourth April 14 thereafter, and the term of office for at large members shall be four years commencing on the April 20 following each at large election and ending at 12:01 a.m., April 20 four years thereafter.
