CHAPTER 223—H. F. No. 463

An act to amend Section 217, General Statutes 1923, as amended by Chapter 276, General Laws 1927, relating to municipal judges.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Judges—Election—Terms—Salary.—That Section 217, General Statutes 1923, as amended by Chapter 276, General Laws 1927, be and the same hereby is amended so as to read as follows:

“217. The judges of such courts shall be elected at the regular city or village elections, for the term of four years, beginning on the first Monday of the month next following their election, and until their successors qualify. When a new court is organized more than ninety (90) days prior to a regular election, the governor shall appoint a judge or judges thereof to serve until they are elected and qualified, and vacancies shall be filled by like appointment for the unexpired term. Provided, that in the absence or disability of the municipal judge and special municipal judge of such court, if there be one, the mayor or president of the council may designate a practicing attorney to sit in place of such municipal judge from day to day. All municipal judges and special municipal judges shall be men learned in the law and residents of the city or village. The salary of each shall be paid monthly by the city or village, and shall be fixed by resolution adopted by a four-fifths majority of the council of such city or village, and approved by the mayor or
