

CHAPTER 158—S. F. No. 817

An act relating to commercial fishing in certain interstate waters; amending the 1938 Supplement to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 5595, Subdivision 4.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Fishing licenses—Who may secure.—That the 1938 Supplement to Mason's Minnesota Statutes of 1927, Section 5595, Subdivision 4, be amended to read as follows :

“Subdivision 4. No license shall be issued to any person who has been convicted of a violation of the laws of this state relating to wild animals within five years of his application nor to any person not a resident of this state. No such license shall be transferable. Before any such license is issued for the calendar year of 1932, or for any subsequent year, the applicant shall furnish a bond to the state, approved by the Commissioner, in the sum of two hundred dollars, with two sureties, conditioned upon compliance with all the provisions of this chapter, provided, however, that applicants for Minnesota set line licenses need not furnish such bond until the state of Wisconsin shall require by law or regulation, the furnishing of bonds by Wisconsin set line fishermen. Any license for a net of any kind hereunder shall become void unless the licensee devotes his personal attention to fishing thereunder. Personal attention to fishing is hereby defined to mean that the licensee shall, in person, attend to the drawing, setting, and lifting of each such net, sorting, caring for, and packing of fish caught therein at the station to which such fish are first brought, and to the marketing thereof.”

Approved April 8, 1939.

CHAPTER 159—S. F. No. 882

An act to amend Section 5189 of Mason's Minnesota Statutes for 1927 so as to require a license before engaging in the business of warehouseman.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota :

Section 1. Obligation to obtain license.—That Section 5189 of Mason's Minnesota Statutes for 1927 be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

"5189. Obligation to obtain license.—Every person desiring to engage in the business of warehouseman before engaging therein shall be licensed annually by and shall be under the supervision and subject to the inspection of the commission. Written application, under oath in such form as shall be prescribed by the commission, shall be made to the commission for license, specifying the city in which it is proposed to carry on the business of warehousing, the location, size, character and equipment of the building or buildings or premises to be used by the said warehouseman, the kind of goods, wares and merchandise intended to be stored therein, the name of the person or corporation operating the same, and of each member of the firm or officer of the corporation, and any other facts necessary to satisfy the commission that the property proposed to be used is suitable for warehouse purposes, and that the warehouseman making the application is qualified to carry on the business of warehousing. Should the commission decide that the building or other property proposed to be used as a warehouse is suitable for the proposed purpose, and that the applicant or applicants are entitled to a license, notice of such decision shall be given the interested parties, and upon the applicant or applicants filing with the commission the necessary bond, as provided for in this act, the commission shall issue the license provided for, upon the payment of the license fee, as in this section provided. A warehouseman to whom a license is issued shall pay for such license a fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00). Such license may be renewed from year to year, but shall never be valid for a period of more than one year, and always upon payment of the full license fee, as provided for in this section for such renewal; provided, that no license shall be issued for any portion of a year for less than the full amount of the license fee, as provided for in this section. Each license obtained under this act shall be publicly displayed in the main office of the place of business of the warehouseman to whom it is issued. Such license shall authorize the warehouseman to carry on the business of warehousing only in the one city named in said application, and in the buildings therein described. But the commission, without requiring an additional bond and license may issue permits from time to time to any warehouseman already duly licensed under the provisions of this act, to operate an additional warehouse or warehouses in the same city for which his original license was issued during the term thereof, upon his filing an application for such permit, and in such form as shall be prescribed by the commission.

Licenses and permits may be revoked by the commission for violation of law, or of any rule or regulation by it prescribed, upon notice and hearing. A license may be refused to any warehouseman whose license has been revoked during the preceding year."

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 8, 1939.
