penalties; amending Minnesota Statutes 1961, Sections 626.63 and 626.64.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 626.63, is amended to read:

626.63 Police communication equipment; use; sale. Subdivision 1. No person other than peace officers within the state and the members of the state highway patrol shall equip any motor vehicle with a ~~short wave length any radio receiving set equipment or combination of equipment,~~ capable of receiving any radio signal, message, or information from any police emergency frequency, or install, use or possess the same in such motor vehicle without first obtaining permission to do so from the superintendent of the bureau upon such form of application as he may prescribe. Any person who is convicted of a violation of this subdivision shall, upon conviction for the first offense, be guilty of a misdemeanor, and for the second and subsequent offenses shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Subd. 2. No person shall transfer, barter, exchange or sell any radio equipment capable of being used in a motor vehicle on a police emergency frequency to any person unless the superintendent of the bureau has issued a permit to such person as is hereinafter provided. Any person found guilty of a violation of this subdivision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, however, that nothing contained in this subdivision shall apply to sales at wholesale to dealers.

Subd. 3. The superintendent of the bureau shall, upon written application, issue a written permit, which shall be nontransferable, to any person of good moral character showing good cause to use such radio equipment capable of receiving any police emergency frequency, as a necessity, in the lawful pursuit of a business, trade, or occupation.

Subd. 4. The superintendent of the bureau shall make and publish uniform rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, for carrying out and enforcing the provisions of sections 626.56 to 626.64, as amended, which rules and regulations shall be promulgated in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1961, Section 626.64, is amended to read:

626.64 Priority of police communications, violations. Any telegraph or telephone operator who shall fail to give priority to police messages or calls as provided in sections 626.56 to 626.64, †
