assets of any foreign insurance company, including reciprocals and fraternal, admitted, or applying for admission, to do business under the laws of this state. In making such an examination or appraisal, the commissioner may examine, in addition to the insurance company, any person, association, or corporation he could examine in connection with the examination or appraisal of a domestic insurance company, if in his discretion he has cause to believe that he is unable to obtain relevant information from such foreign insurance company. In lieu of such an examination the commissioner may, in his discretion, accept the report of examination made by the commissioner of insurance, or corresponding officer, in the state of which the company has its home office; provided, however, that the commissioner shall not accept such a report of examination unless:

(1) the company so examined has sold policies of insurance in the state of examination on which the annual premiums for the preceding calendar year exceeded $500,000 in amount or 25 percent of its total premiums for said year, or

(2) the company so examined has been doing business in the examining state without a change in management, whether as the result of a management contract, any other agreement or arrangement, or a change in control, for more than 3 1/2 years ~~and the examining state will examine companies domiciled therein as frequently as required by this act.~~

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1967, Section 60.081, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, Section 72A.05, any person who violates or aids and abets any violation of a written order issued pursuant to this section may be fined not more than $5,000 for each violation of the order in an action commenced in Ramsey County by the attorney general on behalf of the state of Minnesota and the money so recovered shall be paid into the general revenue fund.

Approved April 29, 1969.
